GUIDELINES / INSTRUCTIONS FOR CHOICE FILLING ROUND-2

Before going for Choice Filling and Locking in 2nd Round, the candidates are advised to go through the followings.

- 1) Candidates, those who have opted for Freeze in Round-1 admission are not eligible for choice Filling and locking.
- 2) Candidates, those who have not taken admission in Round-1 as well as the candidates those who have opted for Float option during Round-1 are eligible for choice Filling and locking.
- 3) During choice filling, Seats of clear vacancy as well as seats of virtual vacancy will also be shown.
- 4) Seats of Virtual vacancy means, against those seats, admission in Round-1 have already been done, but the admitted candidates against those seats have opted for Float. That means, if the candidates (who are already admitted and opted for float) will get allotment in Round-2 in any seat other than the admitted seat of Round-1, then, the admitted seat of that candidate (virtual seat) will be allotted to the next ranked candidate, who had opted for that seat (as a choice).
- 5) As a result of which, the admitted seat of Round-1 (shown as virtual vacancy) will no more be retained with the admitted candidate of Round-1 (if allotted in any other seat in Round-2) and the candidate is bound to take admission in the newly allotted seat of Round-2, failing which, the previously admitted seat of Round-1 as well as the allotted seat of Round-2 will be cancelled automatically and as a consequence, the candidate will lose both the seats and cannot claim either of two.
- 6) Candidates desirous of taking the virtual seats (Mentioned as Zero Seats), are advised to add that seat under preferred choices.
- 7) Candidates admitted in Round-1 and opted for float are advised not to give choices of same admitted subject in Round-2 and only to give better options than the admitted seats. At any case, if any admitted candidates of Round-1, who has opted for float, gives choices of that admitted subject of Round-1 and gets allotted in Round-2, then he/she has also to appear again for admission in Round-2, failing which, the admission of Round-1 as well as allotment of Round-2 will be cancelled.
