

Some clarifications and FAQs

- 1) Who are eligible for Round-2 Choice locking ?

Ans- All candidates those who are merit listed are eligible for choice locking. But, candidates, those who have already admitted in Round-1 / Upgraded Round-1 in their First Preference of Choices, should not give any choices as they have already admitted in their 1st preference, which will help others to select their choices accordingly.

- 2) If any student who has already taken admission in Round-1 / Upgraded Round-1 and in Round-2 get a fresh allotted, what about the seat of Round-1 / Upgraded Round-1 will be in which he has already admitted? Shall it go to the Mop-up or will be allotted in Round-2 to other candidates?

Ans- As per the guidelines, in Round-2 counseling, vacant seats will be displayed virtual basis. More clearly, vacancy will be shown of 2 types. One is Clear Vacancies, against which no. of seats lying vacant after completion of admission Round-1 and resignation round-1 will be shown. The other is the Virtual Vacancy against which the available seats are Zero. Virtual vacancy means, in the above case, If any student who has already taken admission in Round-1 / Upgraded Round-1 and in Round-2 get a fresh allotted, that seat will be vacated and will be added virtually and the candidate next to his / her rank who has given that choice may be allotted that seat, created virtually due to a fresh allotment of already admitted candidates in Round-1 / Upgraded Round-1.

- 3) If, I have already taken admission in Round-1 / Upgraded Round-1 and freshly locked Choice in Round-2 and in Round-2 also allotted one college /subject from my choices, but I don't want take admission in the allotted college / subject in Round-2. Can I still continue in my Round-1 / Upgraded Round-1 admitted seat ?

Ans- No. absolutely Not. As you have already allotted a college / subject in Round-2, your Round-1 / Upgraded Round-1 admission details will be auto cancelled, and the seat in which you were admitted in Round-1 / Upgraded Round-1, will be vacated and will be allotted to the next ranked candidate. And you are bound to take admission in the allotted Round-2 college/subject, else, you will loose both your seat (Round-1 / Upgraded Round-1 admitted seat as well as Round-2 allotted seat). So, if you are giving choices in Round-2, always give better choice preference than Round-1, else, you may suffer.

- 4) If, I have already taken admission in Round-1 / Upgraded Round-1 and freshly locked Choice in Round-2 and in Round-2 , did not get any allotment from my choices, what will I do?

Ans- Incase, you have already taken admission in Round-1 / Upgraded Round-1 and freshly locked Choice in Round-2 and in Round-2 , did not get any allotment from your choices, your Round-1 / Upgraded Round-1 admission will remain intact.

- 5) Some students are asking that, they will fill and lock choices in Round-2 but will not take admission, whether they are eligible for Round-3 or Mop-up or Not ?

Ans- First, if you do not have a choice, then don't give that choice and if getting allotment by giving choices in which you are not interested, then try to take admission, else, it will be treated as you are intentionally blocking a seat and prohibiting others to get that seat and forcing others to enter in to confusions and stress. For the betterment of all, if you have a choice in which you don't want to take admission, better don't give that choice and let other get that choice.

- 6) I have already taken admission in state in Round-1 / Upgraded Round-1. DO I need to resign from that admitted seat to participate in State Round-2 ?

Ans- No. to participate in State, no need to resign from admitted seat in Round-1 / Upgraded Round-1. If you are allotted a seat in Round-2 and will take admission, automatically, it will be migrated in the system.

- 7) Some students querying when to report at admitted Institutions and shall they collect original documents from Convener office before reporting in their admitted Institutes ?

Ans- After Round-2 admission is over, a date will be notified by PGMCC by which the admitted candidates need to report at respective Institutes. Certificates and other original documents submitted by the candidates at the time of provisional admission at convener office, will be dispatched to respective Institutes in due course of time, which students should not be worried about.

Direct candidates, those who are not in regular service, can join immediately as per the notification for final reporting to be published by PGMCC. But, for Inservice candidates, those who are in regular job, it may take some time to get relieved from concerned CDMO and Govt. and in some cases, it may take near about 1 month after the counseling is over. All will take its own course and nothing to be worried about this.

- 8) Many students are curious and asking about the participation in Round-3 / Mop-up counseling in State. Doubts are regarding eligibility for participation, whether allowed or not allowed to participate if already admitted in Round-1 / Upgraded Round-1/Round-2 (till round-2). If already admitted in all India up to Round-2, whether eligible in State or not or vice versa ?

Ans- All India PGMCC will clarify in due course of time according to the Hon'ble Supreme Court.

- 9) What is the process for Seat surrender / resignation?

Ans- After each round counseling, a schedule for resignation will be given. During this schedule, any one who has already taken admission, can surrender their admitted seat / resign from the admitted seat. To surrender or resign from the admitted seat, one need to visit Convener office personally and to collect online seat surrender slip from convener office. Besides, original documents submitted at the time of provisional admission, can be taken back at the time of Seat surrender / resignation. As per the guideline, 10% of the admission fee will be deducted as processing charges and the rest amount will be refunded later, depends on Convener office. Any admitted seats can be surrendered as per the guidelines and any changes made there to from time to time.
